JANUARY NEWSLETTER

PRINCIPAL MESSAGE

BALANCE HEALTH FOR GOOD OUTCOME

We are coming to the end of this year academic session and the Annual Exams are round the corner. The students need to focus more on being healthy and not be stressed out and practise the mantra of hard work to excel in Exams. To stay healthy, the students have to follow some rules and make them a part of their daily routine like to eat frequent and small meals in a day. They should consume more brain food to stimulate their memory. Avoid high sugar and high fat snacks and stay hydrated by consuming more of liquids.

In a students life exercise is also very beneficial for brain as it promotes blood flow around the body, including to the brain.

As we all know that nothing comes easy or can be achieved in life without doing hard work. The students should strive to do their best work each day, and follow this simple yet profound tagline-Success is sweet , but the secret is sweat.

I wish all the students All the best for their upcoming annual exams and all the success in life. Be Happy , Stay fit and Positive.
