"KINDNESS IS A LANGUAGE THAT THE DEAF CAN HEAR AND THE BLIND CAN SEE."

It's a reminder that kindness is not just a one-time action but a way of life. We should strive to make kindness a habit and incorporate it into our daily interactions with others. Kindness can be a powerful way to make a positive impact and bring people together.

Kindness doesn't have to be a grand gesture. Simple acts of kindness can be just as impactful. For example, holding the door for someone, giving a compliment, or offering a listening ear.

"Throw kindness as confetti" is a popular quote and a beautiful metaphor that encourages all of us to spread kindness everywhere they go, just as one would scatter confetti in celebration.

The phrase reminds us that small acts of kindness can have a big impact on people's lives. Being kind to someone can make them feel seen, heard, and appreciated. It can brighten their day and make them feel better about themselves and the world around them.

Moreover, spreading kindness can also create a ripple effect. When someone experiences kindness, they are more likely to pay it forward and do something kind for someone else, creating a chain reaction of positivity.

So, let's all take the message of "throw kindness as confetti" to heart and make a conscious effort to be kind to those around us. Whether it's a smile, a compliment, or a small act of service, let's spread kindness everywhere we go and make the world a better place, one act of kindness at a time. Spreading kindness can also have a positive effect on our own well-being. Studies have shown that doing kind things for others can boost our own happiness and reduce stress.

The phrase encourages us to celebrate and spread joy. Just as confetti is often used in celebrations, kindness can also bring joy and happiness to those around us. The metaphor of confetti implies that kindness is something that can be shared with everyone, regardless of age, gender, race, or any other factors that may divide us.

Every small act of kindness counts, and you never know how much it might mean to someone else. So, let's all make an effort to throw kindness around like confetti and make the world a better place.

HANDWRITING COMPETITION

HANDWRITING GIVES A NEW PERSPECTIVE TO YOUR LIFE.

On 1 April Handwriting competition was conducted from Grades V to X in Akshara Vaagdevi International School. All the students participated enthusiastically and showcased their talent. Handwriting helps us in various aspects, to organize knowledge, spot patterns, and draw connections as we write it down. It can help us to learn and retain information better, unleash our creativity and help us to problem solve and it can even be a mindful process of relaxation.

The technological explosion in communication has pushed handwritten communication abilities to the back drop, but a student's capability is still judged by what he or she writes.

AUTISM AWARENESS DAY

BEING DIFFERENT CAN BE A GOOD THING

Akshara Vaagdevi International School celebrated Autism day on 3 April. The students presented a special assembly where they spoke about Autism, the reasons behind and ways to deal with it. Autism, also known as autism spectrum disorder (ASD), is a neurodevelopmental disorder. Problems with communications and social interactions, along with repetitive and restricted behavior, are common in autism. The associated factors of autism include genetics and specific environmental influences. Principal, Ms Vanaja speaking on the occasion said that we should all collectively work together and make a difference in their lives and which will make our society a little more understanding to the problems and challenges of people, who have to live with autism every day. The school counselor, Mr. Srikanth also addressed the gathering and said we all need to be more compassionate and patient when dealing with such gifted children.

It created awareness so that people and society can feel compassion for children with autism and also for the parents, who dedicate their lives completely to their children to see them making the smallest steps to recovery. These people truly deserve admiration and compassion.

HOLISTIC DEVELOPMENT

LEADS TO THE HOLISTIC DEVELOPMENT OF THE CHILD

On 20 and 21 April PTM was conducted for Grades Pre primary to X respectively. The idea behind the PTM was to check for understanding of the students as we started with the new academic session and successfully completed 2 months. By meeting, the parents and teachers get to discuss, on a common platform, the various requirements of a student and their areas of weakness on which they need to work upon. It will also help parents to understand about their wards activities and performance in the class, and will also have an idea as to what efforts they have to put to further help them in excelling in their academic domain.

The parents were also inducted on the holiday homework based on the areas that their wards need to improve. The PTM was concluded on a positive note.
