PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The quote "Be great in act, as you have been in thought" is attributed to William Shakespeare. It encourages all individuals to not only think and dream about doing great things but also to take action and actually achieve greatness through their actions. In essence, it emphasizes the importance of turning one's thoughts and aspirations into tangible deeds and accomplishments.

As we embark on this new academic year, I want to share with you a timeless proverb that has guided generations before us: "Be great in act, as you have been in thought."

It is not enough to simply dream and think about achieving greatness; each of you possesses incredible potential, and I encourage you to channel your aspirations into concrete efforts and achievements. In this journey of learning and growth, remember that your actions define your path to success. So, let your actions speak loudly and proudly, reflecting the greatness of your thoughts and dreams.

I have no doubt that with dedication, hard work, and a commitment to turning your aspirations into actions, you will excel and make us all proud. In the spirit of this proverb, I encourage each of you to consider the gift of your time, expertise, and support.

This is where the proverb steps in, as a reminder that thinking alone is not enough. To truly achieve greatness, one must move beyond the realm of thought, action. Procrastination, self-doubt, fear of failure, and external obstacles can deter us from taking the first step. However, it is essential to recognize that these challenges are an integral part of the process. It is through overcoming them that we truly grow and achieve greatness.

Therefore, let us embrace this timeless wisdom and strive to be not only thinkers but also doers, for in our actions, we find the true measure of our greatness.

Sweeter than honey, tastier than curd, pleasanter indeed than any happiness and joy is the company, is the power of the name of Krishna. The birthday of Lord Krishna is celebrated with great devotion and enthusiasm, on this Janmashtami day, in India. Krishna Janmashtami, also known as Krishnashtami, is observed on the Ashtami tithi, the eighth day of the dark half or Krishna Paksha of the month of Shraavana. # MODELING ACTIVITY

CHILDREN ENHANCED THEIR MOTOR SKILLS THROUGH CLAY

Clay Modelling is an activity that helps in the development of pre-primary students in several ways. It nurtures a child's creativity, boosts imagination, and imbues self-confidence. The touch and feel of clay have a naturally relaxing quality. By pressing, squeezing, poking, and reshaping the clay into different shapes, improves a child's motor skills. The student's problem-solving skills can be explored when he decides how far they can shape the clay before it breaks, de-shapes, and falls.

To create something from scratch is indeed to be proud of and empowering. Playing and modeling with clay helps the child to develop a sense of control. After the child is done with shaping the clay, he/she will feel accomplished. Thus, through Clay Modelling, a child can bring imagination to life.

Little Aksharites participated in the Clay Modelling competition on 11th September 2023 with great enthusiasm. The activity was carried out by the students of Pre Primary. Nursery students made a model of Tree with clay. PP1 students made Water animals with clay, students of PP2 made their favorite pet with the play dough. The students used their imagination and creativity to make and decorate the models made from clay. The activity was enjoyed by all the students.

Grandparents fill the world with affection

"Nobody can do for little children what grandparents do. Grandparents sort of sprinkle stardust over the lives of little children." Grandparents day has a history stretched log back to the year 1973. The day really began as Marian McQueen, a Virginian homemaker, began a campaign to establish a special day to honor grandparents. Her enthusiasm soon attracted people from all the social groups and in 1973 Grandparents day was announced officially in Virginia.

Our grandparents play a precious role in our life that we cannot ignore the importance of grandparents. Their support and unconditional love lead us to live life blissfully. After getting the medals they were excited and cherished their childhood memories. This event created an awareness of the significance of grandparents in our lives as they inculcate as many moral values as they can and the stories and lessons will help us throughout our life.
