PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

"YOUR JOURNEY IS YOUR OWN, BUT THE MANTRA IS UNIVERSAL: KEEP GOING, KEEP GROWING."

As you navigate through your academic journey and beyond, always remember these empowering words: "Keep going and keep growing."

Life is a journey filled with twists, turns, challenges, and victories. It's not solely about the destination but the growth experienced along the way. Each step you take, each hurdle you overcome, and every effort you put in contribute to your growth and development.

It's about persevering, even when faced with difficulties or setbacks. It's about pushing beyond your comfort zone to explore new horizons, learn, and evolve. By fostering a mindset of continuous learning and self-improvement, you lay the groundwork for a future enriched by adaptability and innovation. Challenges become opportunities, setbacks transform into lessons, and every achievement becomes a milestone in your journey.

It's vital to approach each day with a hunger for determination to surpass your previous accomplishments. Embrace curiosity, explore diverse viewpoints, and cultivate the skills necessary for success in an ever-evolving world. It encompasses your willingness to explore, adapt, and embrace change. It's about cultivating resilience, empathy, and a thirst for knowledge.

Your potential is limitless, and the journey of learning and growth is infinite. Embrace it with enthusiasm, dedication, and a commitment to becoming the best version of yourself.

"Keep going and keep growing" because it is this steadfast pursuit of progress that will empower you to leave an indelible mark on the world. Wishing you continued success and fulfillment in your educational pursuits. Keep going and keep growing,

DON'T JUST CHASE YOUR DREAMS...RUN THEM DOWN!

In the game of chess, the U-15 girls and boys displayed strategic brilliance, earning well-deserved silver medals. Anshika and Virat stood out in the U-12 and U-14 tennis categories, respectively, while Natasha and Adarsh secured the second position in the challenging U-15 chess category.

Principal G. Vanaja extended her heartfelt congratulations, commending the students' extraordinary achievements. Their stellar performances not only brought honor to the school but also served as an inspiration, highlighting AVIS's commitment to perseverance, dedication, and excellence.

"NURTURING EXCELLENCE, FOSTERING VERSATILITY – WHERE EVERY STUDENT SHINES!"

On December 12th, students from Akshara Vaagdevi International Schools showcased their remarkable talent and prowess in the esteemed "Classmate All Rounder" competition, organized by ITC Limited and executed by LXL Ideas Private Limited.

The event, a celebration of academic excellence and versatile abilities, witnessed outstanding participation from the school's students. Notably, Grade 8 students Vedant, Sakshi, and Sahishnu secured an impressive position in the Second Phase of the Juniors Category.

Their exceptional performance not only brought acclaim to the school but also underscored their dedication, proficiency, and all-rounded capabilities. These students' achievements exemplify the holistic development and academic prowess fostered at Akshara Vaagdevi International Schools.

The school community extends heartfelt congratulations to Vedant, Sakshi, Sahishnu, and all participating students for their remarkable achievements, showcasing their commitment to excellence in education.

"DIVE INTO KNOWLEDGE, SOAR INTO EXCELLENCE: GRADE IX – YOUR ACADEMIC ODYSSEY BEGINS."

On December 13th, Akshara Vaagdevi International School hosted an insightful orientation program for Grade IX students and parents in the AV room. The event witnessed the active participation of all Grade IX teachers alongside Principal G. Vanaja, who addressed the gathering with a focus on outlining the forthcoming sessions for the students.

Principal G. Vanaja provided an overview of the upcoming sessions while emphasizing the significance of minimizing gadget usage and advocating thorough textbook reading for effective learning.

The orientation featured a comprehensive presentation encompassing details for communication with teachers, session timetables, revision class schedules, test structures, and error analysis protocols. Handouts containing exhaustive information about the sessions were distributed among the parents.

The sessions for Grade IX are scheduled as follows:

Duration: December 15th, 2023, to January 8th, 2024

Structure: Daily two sessions comprising revision followed by subject-based tests, each test carrying 20 marks as per Board Pattern

Error Analysis: Rigorous evaluation will be conducted, and answer scripts will be shared with parents for acknowledgment

Pre-Board Exams: Tentatively set to commence from January 17th, 2024

Final Exams: Tentatively scheduled from January 30th, 2024

This orientation program serves as a crucial guide for students and parents, offering a clear roadmap for the upcoming academic sessions and assessments, aligning with the school's commitment to academic excellence and holistic development.

INTER-HOUSE DANCE COMPETITION: A FUSION OF MOVEMENT, CULTURE, AND LEARNING

An Inter-House Dance Competition, was held on December 15th, emerged as a vibrant tapestry of creativity, culture, and education. This eagerly anticipated event brought together students from grades 1 to 9, showcasing their diverse talents in solo and group performances under three captivating themes: Christmas, Folk, and Classical.

The competition was not just a display of physical prowess but a testament to the school's commitment to holistic education. Participants were not only judged on technical proficiency but also on their ability to convey artistic expression, creativity, and stage presence. The comprehensive rubrics highlighted the educational benefits of dance, emphasizing its role in fostering concentration, discipline, and self-expression.

The festive Christmas theme injected joy and festivity into the auditorium, while the Folk and Classical themes provided a platform for students to connect with their cultural heritage. The competition's inclusivity allowed for a range of dance styles, creating an enriching experience for both participants and spectators.

The difficulty faced by judges in declaring winners underscored the exceptional quality of performances. Every participant, whether part of a group or performing solo, contributed to an atmosphere of collaboration and enthusiasm.

As the curtains closed on the Inter-House Dance Competition, AVIS School stood proud, not just for hosting a spectacular event but for nurturing an environment that values the multidimensional benefits of dance in education. This celebration of movement, culture, and learning will undoubtedly leave a lasting impact on the participants, reinforcing the school's commitment to holistic development.

AKSHARA VAAGDEVI'S VISIONARY INITIATIVE: EYE TESTING CAMP ENSURES HEALTHY SIGHT FOR ALL

In a proactive move towards the well-being of its students and staff, Akshara Vaagdevi School organized an eye testing camp on the 20th and 21st of December. This thoughtful initiative aimed to promote eye health and ensure that both teaching and non-teaching staff, along with the students, maintain optimal vision for their academic and daily activities.

The eye testing camp served as a valuable opportunity for early detection of vision-related issues, allowing for timely interventions and necessary corrective measures. Students and staff members participated in the camp, recognizing the importance of regular eye check-ups in maintaining overall health and academic performance.

The camp not only focused on identifying refractive errors but also addressed other potential eye concerns. Trained professionals conducted thorough examinations, providing valuable insights into eye health and offering guidance on maintaining good vision hygiene.

Akshara Vaagdevi's commitment to the well-being of its school community was evident through this initiative, demonstrating a holistic approach to education that goes beyond academic excellence. By organizing the eye testing camp, the school took a proactive step towards ensuring that everyone in the school community has the best possible visual health.

As the results of the eye tests become available, Akshara Vaagdevi School continues to exemplify its dedication to the welfare of its students and staff, fostering an environment where both academic and physical well-being are given equal importance.

"BUILDING BRIDGES WITH BYTES: SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY WEAVING THE FABRIC OF SOCIETY."

In a commitment to fostering scientific innovation and inquiry, St. Peter's High School, Bowenpally, served as the distinguished host for an enthralling exposition amid the CBSE Regional Science Exhibition. Demonstrating a dedication to advancing scientific exploration, the school orchestrated an engaging platform for intellectual discourse and innovative displays. On December 8th and 9th. The thematic focus, "Science and Technology for Society," encompassed pivotal domains including Health, Life, Agriculture, Communication and Transport, and Computational Thinking. This prestigious event drew participation from several eminent schools, each showcasing innovative projects that garnered admiration and acclaim.

Among the array of exhibits, Grade 9 students, Sohil and Shourya from AVIS (Akshara Vaagdevi International School), distinguished themselves with their groundbreaking project on AGRODIAN 3.0. Accompanied by Science HOD Mr. Kailash Ganga, the students presented their project alongside other participating schools.

These exhibitions serve as a catalyst for cultivating creative thinking and nurturing a robust scientific temperament among students. The platform encourages budding innovators to explore novel ideas and delve deeper into the realms of science and technology.

Principal G. Vanaja extended her heartfelt congratulations to the diligent boys, commending their dedication, hard work, and innovative approach demonstrated through their project. Such commendable initiatives underscore the school's commitment to fostering innovation and excellence in scientific exploration among its students.

AKSHARA VAAGDEVI TRIUMPHS IN S CHAND PUBLICATIONS' MATH DAY QUIZ AT PALLAVI MODEL SCHOOL, BODUPPAL

Hyderabad, December 22, 2023: In a resounding success, students from Akshara Vaagdevi at Pallavi Model School, Boduppall, clinched victory at the Math Day Quiz organized by S Chand Publications on December 20th and 21st, 2023. The quiz, featuring participants exclusively from s grades I to VIII, showcased the exceptional mathematical aptitude of the students.

Carefully chosen representatives, five per grade, engaged in an intellectually charged competition that spanned all Pallavi Group of Schools, creating an environment of intense yet friendly rivalry.

The brilliance of Akshara Vaagdevi students shone particularly bright in grades I, II, and IV, securing a commendable second place in their respective categories. The winning teams were honored with trophies and certificates, a testament to their outstanding performance.

This significant accomplishment not only highlights the dedication of the students but also underscores the school's commitment to fostering a robust foundation in mathematics education. AKSHARA VAAGDEVI INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL'S 'CONSERVE MY PLANET' PROGRAM CULTIVATES ENVIRONMENTAL LEADERSHIP AMONG STUDENTS

The "Conserve My Planet" program, spearheaded by Akshara Vaagdevi International School, stands as a beacon of environmental consciousness and proactive conservation efforts. The initiative commenced with a dynamic Green Assembly, where participants received T-shirts, caps, and informative booklets, symbolizing their commitment to safeguarding our precious planet.

The program's multifaceted approach embraced academic excellence and effective communication skills. A rigorous quiz identified 20 exceptional students based on their performance, subsequently engaging them in an eloquent elocution competition. The chosen topic, "Becoming a Green Ambassador of Conserve My Planet Program," prompted contestants to articulate strategies for preserving Earth, ensuring a thoughtful and visionary perspective.

From this pool of talented participants, three standout winners emerged, earning the honor of representing Akshara Vaagdevi International School. They were tasked with presenting a practical working model for planet conservation at a green program that brought together schools from across the state.

Looking forward, the green ambassadors are poised to extend their impact through an innovative awareness program at petrol pumps. Guided by dedicated teacher coordinators, Ms. Yasmeen Ara and Ms. Rajitha, and under the mentorship of Mr. Anwar Ali from Schneider Electric, these future leaders aim to educate and inspire the community on sustainable practices. The Conserve My Planet program not only cultivates environmental stewardship but also empowers the younger generation to take actionable steps in preserving the planet for generations to come.

AKSHARA VAAGDEVI INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL CELEBRATES A TRIAD OF SPECIAL OCCASIONS

In a jubilant gathering on the 24th of December, Akshara Vaagdevi International School marked a day of academic and social significance, blending intellectual prowess, community engagement, and festive cheer.

The school commenced the day with a vibrant celebration of Math Day, honoring the subject often hailed as the language of the universe. Gratitude was extended to the Mathematics Department for their unwavering commitment to excellence. The dedicated faculty members were acknowledged for shaping not only academic pursuits but also enhancing problem-solving skills and logical reasoning among the students.

Following this, the Social Department orchestrated the commemoration of Kishan Day, a poignant reminder of social responsibility and community engagement. The department's efforts were lauded for instilling values of compassion and empathy, emphasizing the importance of giving back to society. The initiatives and projects undertaken reflected the school's spirit of altruism and kindness.

The day concluded with festive Christmas celebrations organized by AVIS MANAGEMENT, honoring the season of joy and unity. The guest for the day was Rev.K.James Cecil Victor who graced the occasion with his presence. The festive celebrations commenced with the message given by the guest followed by cake cutting. The Principal, Vice Principal, teaching, and non-teaching staff were collectively thanked for their efforts in organizing a memorable event.

In a closing statement, the school expressed gratitude to all involved, hoping that the spirit of learning, social responsibility, and festive joy would continue to enrich lives and strengthen the school community.

As the day's celebrations come to an end, the Akshara Vaagdevi International School remains a beacon of knowledge, compassion, and celebration, thriving together in unity.
