DEAR STUDENTS, STAFF, AND PARENTS,

India is home to many cultures, religions, castes, and creed. India got independence in 1947. Despite that, she has grown rapidly. This would not have been possible if India was not united. Unity fosters harmony, cooperation, and mutual respect. It builds strong communities, strengthens relationships, and promotes peace. It builds bonds and fosters cooperation, leading to success in various endeavors.

Great Indian scientists such as Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam, Dr. Vikram Sarabhai, and Dr. C.V. Raman have shown us how diverse minds, when united by a common purpose, can achieve the impossible. Their legacy reminds us that collaboration, mutual respect, and shared vision are the true engines of progress.

As a school, we strive to nurture these values. Every student, regardless of background, has a voice, a role, and a responsibility in shaping a brighter future. Let us continue to support one another, celebrate our differences, and grow together — in learning and in character.

WARM REGARDS,

MS. VANAJA

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

India is a land of immense diversity — in languages, cultures, beliefs, and traditions. Yet, what makes our country extraordinary is not just this diversity, but our ability to live and work together in harmony. Just like in science, where different elements come together to create something powerful and meaningful, our unity amplifies our strength as a society.

Doctors' Day Celebration

Avis news bites@July 1st (AVIS): Doctor's Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm and heartfelt gratitude at AVIS to recognize and honor the invaluable contributions of doctors to society. The event, themed around "Health is Wealth", carried a unique twist this year was CBSE cir. no.26 — it was a No Sugar Celebration, emphasizing wellness, natural living, and health-conscious choices. It established 'Sugar Boards' where information was displayed for educating students about the risks of excessive sugar intake. These boards also provided essential information, including the recommended daily sugar intake, the sugar content in commonly consumed foods (unhealthy meals such as junk food, cold drinks, etc.), health risks associated with high sugar consumption, and healthier dietary alternatives. This created awareness among students about food choices and promote long-term health benefits among students

The program began with the traditional lighting of the lamp, followed by a warm welcome by the student anchors. Our Principal, Ms Vanaja, addressed the gathering with an inspiring message about the importance of health, preventive care, and the selfless dedication of doctors, especially in today's fast-paced world.

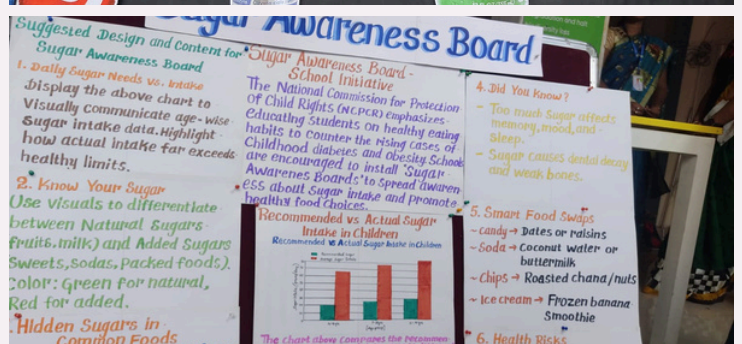

One of the highlights was a thought-provoking skit by the students, portraying "A Day in the Life of a Doctor," which offered a glimpse into the challenges, sacrifices, and silent strength of medical professionals. This was followed by a motivational talk by a guest doctor, who spoke about lifestyle diseases, the harmful effects of sugar, and easy ways to stay healthy and active through natural food choices.

Students also expressed their gratitude through a heartfelt poem and a musical tribute, celebrating doctors as true heroes. An interactive questionnaire session took place where students to ask health-related questions, making the session educational and engaging.

To reinforce the theme of healthy living, the refreshment counter served nutrient-rich snacks like fruits, dry fruits, sugar-free smoothies, and millet-based treats — a small step to promote mindful eating.

As a token of appreciation, doctors were presented with handmade cards and wellness hampers prepared by the students, filled with herbal teas, immunity boosters, and natural snacks.

The celebration concluded with a vibrant fitness flash mob and a group photo, capturing the spirit of the day one that combined gratitude, awareness, and wellness in perfect harmony.

"Green Day & Vruksh Diwas – A Celebration of Nature

Exploring Nature – Balvatika Students at Deer Park, Shamirpet

Avis news bites@July 7th (Shamirpet) : The tiny explorers embarked on a joyful and educational field trip to *Deer Park, Shamirpet on Saturday, 7th July. The visit aimed to provide firsthand experience of wildlife and natural surroundings, sparking curiosity and love for nature in young minds.

Children were excited to observe deer, birds, trees, and butterflies, and enjoyed a nature walk guided by their teachers. The trip sensitized the sensory exploration, observation skills, and environmental awareness in a playful manner. It was a delightful day filled with laughter, learning, and meaningful moments in the lap of nature.

Our little environmental champions at Balvatika celebrated Green Day and Vruksh Diwas with joy, creativity, and care on 7th and 8th. Dressed as trees, fruits, and flowers, the children radiated the beauty and importance of nature.

They enthusiastically sowed seeds, watered plants, and helped with cleaning green spaces, learning through experience the value of nurturing our planet.

Avis news bites@July 7th (Avis) : The tiny tots of Balvatika at AVIS had a fun-filled and joyful learning experience during a special Reading, Writing, and Colouring Activity held on 7th July. Designed to build foundational literacy and fine motor skills, the activity was filled with smiles, creativity, and enthusiastic participation.

The day began with a lively reading session, where teachers narrated simple and engaging stories using picture books, puppets, and flashcards. Children listened with wide eyes and eager curiosity, developing early language skills and a love for books. This was followed by a writing practice session, where the little learners traced and wrote letters, numbers, and simple words with great excitement. Teachers gently guided them, making learning both effective and enjoyable.

The final part of the day was the most colorful — the colouring activity! Children expressed themselves using bright crayons and sketch pens as they filled beautiful worksheets related to animals, fruits, alphabets, and nature. It was heartwarming to see their creativity come alive on paper.

The activity not only encouraged literacy and artistic expression, but also helped enhance concentration, hand-eye coordination, and confidence in our youngest learners.

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE
(AI) DAY

FOR STUDENTS OF GRADES VI TO X

 THEME:
"The Role of Artificial Intelligence
in Our Future"

Avis news bites@July 16 (AVIS): On the occasion of the International Day of Artificial Intelligence, AVIS proudly organized an Essay Writing Competition to engage young minds in exploring the transformative world of AI. The event aimed to promote critical thinking, creativity, and awareness about the growing impact of artificial intelligence in our daily lives and its potential for shaping the future.

Students from Grade VI to X participated with enthusiasm, penning insightful essays on the theme "Artificial Intelligence: Friend, Force, or Future?". The topics explored ranged from the ethical implications of AI, its use in medicine and education, to questions about machine consciousness and AI-human collaboration.

The competition served as a platform for students to express their opinions, showcase their knowledge, and envision how AI could enhance or challenge human potential. It was heartening to see students citing real-world examples such as AI in virtual assistants, self-driving cars, climate forecasting, and even creative writing — showcasing both imagination and understanding.

Avis news bites@July 23rd (AVIS): AVIS witnessed a vibrant celebration of imagination and expression during the Inter-House Art Competition for Grades Balvatika to X. The event brought together talented young artists from all four houses, each pouring their creativity onto canvas with passion and flair.

The competition was divided into categories based on grade levels, and students were given themes such as "My Dream World," "Unity in Diversity," "Nature and Me," and "AI and the Future". The variety of topics allowed students to explore personal, social, and futuristic themes using a wide range of artistic styles and materials.

Each house brought its unique energy to the competition. The school art room turned into a creative haven, filled with colors, concentration, and inspiration. Participants showcased remarkable skills in sketching, painting, and blending colors — demonstrating both technical talent and meaningful storytelling through art.

Judges assessed the artworks based on originality, composition, technique, creativity, and relevance to the theme. The best entries were awarded certificates and points for their respective houses, fueling healthy inter-house spirit and teamwork.

More than just a competition, the event fostered confidence, collaboration, and creative thinking among students. It was a testament to AVIS's commitment to nurturing not just academic excellence but also artistic expression.

"Bonalu Celebrations"

Avis news bites@July 18 (AVIS): AVIS came alive with color, rhythm, and devotion as students and staff came together to celebrate Bonalu, one of Telangana's most vibrant and traditional festivals. Rooted in gratitude and cultural pride, the event beautifully showcased the essence of Bonalu — an offering to Goddess Mahakali for blessings, health, and protection.

The celebration began with a traditional welcome, where students dressed in festive attire carried decorated Bonam pots — symbolizing devotion and thanksgiving. The stage was adorned with flowers and rangoli, creating an atmosphere of reverence and joy.

The event featured a cultural showcase including folk songs, dance performances, and a skit depicting the origin and significance of Bonalu. Students performed the traditional Pothuraju dance, complete with vibrant costumes, drums, and synchronized steps, bringing the festive spirit alive.

Our teachers explained the historical and cultural relevance of Bonalu, helping students appreciate the festival beyond its rituals — as a symbol of community strength, tradition, and devotion.

To reinforce the spirit of unity and heritage, students participated in a Bonam decoration activity and enjoyed traditional music during the celebration.

The event concluded with prayers for the well-being of all, echoing the festival's core message of protection and gratitude.

"Field Trip to Akshaya Kalpa "

Avis news bites@July 25th(Shamshabad): As part of our commitment to experiential learning and environmental awareness, students of AVIS School recently embarked on an enriching field trip to AkshayaKalpa Organic Dairy Farm for Grades VII and VIII.

Located in the serene countryside, AkshayaKalpa is a pioneering initiative in organic dairy farming that combines traditional practices with cutting-edge technology. Our students had the unique opportunity to witness how organic milk is produced — from feeding the cows with natural fodder to the use of robotic milking machines that ensure hygiene and animal comfort.

The visit offered valuable insights into sustainable farming practices, including biogas production, solar energy use, and organic manure preparation. Students were particularly fascinated by the integration of eco-friendly technologies and the ethical treatment of animals on the farm.

Interactive sessions, including sapling planting and a hands-on interactive session with farm experts, further deepened the learning experience. The field trip not only supported our academic curriculum but also inspired students to reflect on the importance of conscious consumption and environmental responsibility.

"Field Trip to One day weaver "

Avis news bites@July 17th (AVIS): As part of our continued focus on experiential and value-based education, students of Grade III to V visited One Day Weaver, a unique initiative that introduces young minds to the rich heritage of handloom weaving in India.

The immersive one-day experience gave our students a firsthand look at the artistry, patience, and skill involved in traditional weaving. Guided by master weavers, the students observed how threads come to life through intricate patterns, vibrant dyes, and age-old techniques passed down through generations. Students had the opportunity to try weaving themselves on simple looms, gaining an appreciation for the craftsmanship and attention to detail required. They also learned about the sustainable aspects of handloom textiles, and how these practices support rural livelihoods and cultural preservation.

The visit beautifully aligned with our mission at AVIS — to blend academics with values, creativity, and real-world awareness. It was heartwarming to see students engaged, curious, and respectful of the traditions that form the fabric of our nation's identity. We thank the team at One Day Weaver for this memorable experience and for helping our students understand that learning can be both hands-on and heart-led.

"National Reading Day"

Avis news bites@July 18th (AVIS): In alignment with the vision of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, which strongly advocates for developing reading habits from an early age, Akshara Vaagdevi International School (AVIS) celebrated National Reading Day on 17th July 2025. This day marks the legacy of Sh. P.N. Panicker, whose tireless efforts laid the foundation for the reading movement in India, and is officially observed on 19th June each year. The celebration at AVIS was aimed at fostering a love for reading among students, recognizing it as a fundamental skill for language acquisition, cognitive development, and critical thinking—as emphasized in NEP 2020. The day began with a special assembly highlighting the contributions of Sh. P.N. Panicker and the importance of reading in today's education.

Students from various grades participated in book reading sessions, storytelling activities, and read-aloud circles. The school library also organized a "Drop Everything and Read" (DEAR) hour, where both students and staff dedicated uninterrupted time to reading books of their choice. Thought-provoking posters and bookmarks created by students on the theme "Read to Grow" adorned the campus, adding to the spirit of the event.
